In the heart of the Amalfi Coast, this creative experience among the lemon groves combines art, tradition, and local cuisine in an authentic and immersive atmosphere. Surrounded by the scent of citrus fruits and the tranquility of gardens overlooking the coast, you will discover the most artistic and convivial side of Amalfi.

Guided by a local artist, you will paint on ceramic or wood using decorative techniques inspired by Amalfitan tradition and the colors of the Mediterranean. After the workshop, you will experience a typical Campania lunch with local recipes where lemon becomes the protagonist of flavors, aromas, and combinations of Amalfitan cuisine.

An authentic experience to be inspired by the beauty of the Coast through creativity, conviviality, and local culture.
