A bright kitchen, the aroma of fresh ingredients, and an atmosphere that immediately puts you at ease. Here, the lesson begins simply, in a space that combines elegance and familiarity.

Guided by Astrid, you'll delve into the preparation of classics like fresh pasta or risottos, working directly on fundamental techniques. You'll knead, roll, and "mantecare," following each step carefully but without rigidity. The pace is engaging and accessible, designed to truly immerse you in the process.

During the experience, what seemed complex becomes natural. Steps become clearer, gestures simpler, and cooking begins to feel like something you can genuinely recreate.
